

Superintendent's Highlight of the Week November 18, 2016

This weekend the boys Varsity Volleyball team led us through a nail-biting end of the season as they, the Nassau County Champions, challenged Smithtown West, the Suffolk County Champions, to the Long Island Championships. POB Hawks became the 2016 Nassau County Champions by defeating Massapequa in 3 straight games. Danny Kim and Max Schulman were named to the All-tournament and our setter Ethan Klein was voted as the Nassau County Section 8 Tournament MVP.

The Long Island Championship games saw evenly matched champions battling for the title, in sets 18-25, 23-25, 26-24, and 23-25. In the end Smithtown West claimed the victory. Ethan Klein was chosen to the All Star NY State team. We are extremely proud of the entire team's performance and congratulate them for going the distance to this championship game.

The POB fans brought a crowd to their Massapequa and playoff matches to express their gratitude for their efforts. The boys' volleyball program wants to thank the community of POBJFKHS for being such amazing, awesome fans and supporting them all season. We hope to see you in the stands next year as they continue to show off their amazing talent. Go Hawks 2017!!

